

Questioner

Your Role is to ask questions about the text to probe and depend understanding.

Use the grid on the back of this sheet to help you think of questions you could ask others about the reading.

Below write your top three questions.

1.

2.

3.

Summariser

Your Role is to identify key information in the text.

Read through the text and underline or highlight the key points.

Use the space below to summarise it in your own words.

Predictor

Your Role is to look for clues and make predictions.

Before you read the text answer the following questions.

What do you think the text is about?

What do you think you will learn from the text?

What do you already know about the text?

After you have read it

Were your predictions right? What did you learn?

Clarifier

Your Role is to make sure everyone understands the vocabulary.

As you read through the text, identify any words or phrases you think might cause difficulty for some.

WORD/PHRASE

WHAT I THINK IT MEANS

DEFINITION
